

Tyler J. Goldberger
tjgoldberger@wm.edu
tylergoldberger.com

EDUCATION

William & Mary, Williamsburg, VA

Ph.D., History 2025 (Expected)

Areas of Specialization: America in the World, Modern United States History, History and Memory, Modern Latin American History

Research Interests: Twentieth-Century United States, History and Memory after Civil Wars and Conflicts, Post-World War II Transnational Relationships, Twentieth-Century America in the World, Transnationalism, Human Rights, Genocide Studies

Ph.D. Candidate, Passed Qualifying Exams with Distinction

William & Mary, Williamsburg, VA

M.A., History 2020

M.A. Thesis: “Memory as a Tool of Resignification: Shifting Spain’s Valley of the Fallen from a Historic Monument to a Memory Site; The Contested Nature of Constructing National Identity: The Appropriation of Tecún Umán through Representation in Guatemala after 1960”

Duke University, Durham, NC, Magna Cum Laude, Phi Beta Kappa

B.A., History and Spanish, Certificate in Jewish Studies 2019

Double Honors Thesis with Highest Distinction: “Making Memory Matter: The Asociación para la Recuperación de la Memoria Histórica and Spain’s Efforts to Reclaim the Past”

Universidad Carlos III de Madrid, Madrid, Spain, Fall 2017

PUBLICATIONS

Peer Reviewed

“Memory surrounding a Mausoleum: Transforming Spain’s Valley of the Fallen into a Site of Conscience.” Space and Culture 25(2), December 31, 2021.

Tyler J. Goldberger and Carlos Osorio, “United States Declassification Diplomacy with Argentina: A Timeline.” H-Diplo, September 16, 2021.

John Powers with research assistance from Tyler J. Goldberger and Sara Berndt, “Leading the U.S. Declassification Project from Argentina: Reflections on its Challenges, Achievements, and Lessons for the Future.” H-Diplo, September 16, 2021.

Public Facing

“Introducing New Interpretations of Spain’s Past.” Zócalo Public Square, part of “How Should Societies Remember Their Sins” series (forthcoming October 2022)
Commissioned by the Andrew M. Mellon Foundation

“Bringing Spanish History into the Classroom.” The Volunteer, Veterans of the Abraham Lincoln Brigades (forthcoming September 2022)

“The Reconquista, Washington Irving, and the American Civil War: Coming Together Through Special Collections.” Special Collections Research Center, William & Mary Blog. October 22, 2019.

“Confronting being a low SES student at Duke.” The Chronicle, Duke University Student Newspaper. February, 4, 2019.

GRANTS AND FELLOWSHIPS

New York Public Library Short-Term Research Fellowship, New York 2022 – 2023

David M. Rubenstein Rare Book & Manuscript Library Human Rights Archive Travel Grant, Duke University 2022 – 2023

Teaching Fellows Innovative Pedagogy Grant, William & Mary 2022

Graduate Studies Advisory Board Humanities Research Grant, William & Mary	2022
Dean of University Libraries Grant, William & Mary	2022
Swem Library Student Scholarship, William & Mary	2022
Meyers-Stern Scholarship in Judaic Studies, William & Mary	2022
Morton Conference and Travel Research Funding, William & Mary	2020 – 2022
Walter J. Zable Graduate Recruitment Fellowship, William & Mary	2019 – 2021
Arts & Sciences Graduate Student Research Grant, William & Mary	2020
Vertical Research Pilot Program Grant, Argentina Declassification Project	2020
Shore Undergraduate Research Scholar Grant, Duke University	2017 – 2019
Duke Human Rights Summer Research Grant, Duke University	2018

HONORS AND AWARDS

Judith Ewell Award in Comparative and Transnational History, William & Mary	2021 – 2022
HASTAC Scholars Fellow	2020 – 2022
Carl J. Strikwerda Award for Excellence, William & Mary Graduate Research Symposium	2020
Phi Beta Kappa	2020 (Inducted)
Richard L. Predmore Award for Excellence in Spanish, Duke University	2019
Phi Alpha Theta, Alpha Kappa Pi Chapter, History Honor Society	2017 (Inducted)

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS AND INVITED TALKS

“Holocaust Memory and Memorialization in the United States.” Echoes & Reflections Webinar for Secondary School Educators. Organized by Yad Vashem in Jerusalem, Israel. November 14.	2022
“Reexamining and Redressing Descriptions in Archival Records: Hon’s Diary as a Case Study.” Virginia Library Association – College and Research Libraries Chapter Annual Conference. Norfolk, Virginia. October 19-21. Accepted as a Peer Reviewed session	2022
“Alma Mater’s love they’re telling’: Negotiating William & Mary’s Competing Historical Memories of Violence.” Holocaust, Genocide, and Mass Violence in the Public Imagination. Denver, Colorado, September 21-23.	2022
“Holocaust Sites of Memory in the United States: Remembering and Forgetting after 1945.” Echoes & Reflections Advanced Learning Seminar. Yad Vashem, Jerusalem, Israel, July 10-20.	2022
“Generalísimo Franco is Still Alive!’: Hauntings and Historical Memory in Spain's Post-Franco Regime (1975 – Present).” A Collective Address to Death. Columbus, Ohio, May 13-14.	2022
“Supra-Institutional Collaborations in Times of COVID: An Extensible Model for Digital Project Development,” Roundtable. Association for Computers and the Humanities. July 21-23.	2021
“A Contested Washington and Lee University: Debates about Civil War Memory and Race Relations among and between Students and Alumni.” Memory Studies Association Forward Postgraduate Workshop: Intersections@Convergences. July 1-2.	2021
“Washington and Lee University’s Persistent Nostalgia: Robert E. Lee, Memory, and Counter-Counter Memory in the Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries.” Memory, Melancholy, and Nostalgia Conference. December 10-11.	2020
“Reinscribing Memory in a Mausoleum: The Valley of the Fallen and the Polarized Political Landscape in Spain, William & Mary Graduate Student Research Symposium, Williamsburg, Virginia, March 21 (canceled due to COVID-19 pandemic).	2020
“William & Mary and Declassification Diplomacy.” Inteligencia ilegal y espionaje político en la agenda de derechos humanos. La Plata, Argentina, March 20-21 (canceled due to COVID-19 pandemic).	2020
“Intended Forgetting and Exclusionary Memory: Francisco Franco’s Construction of the Valley of the Fallen.” Research Symposium, Department of Romance Studies. Duke University, Durham, North Carolina, March 22.	2019

“Historical Memory and Intended Forgetting: Spain’s The Valley of the Fallen.” Public Secretary and Organized Forgetting. Duke University, Durham, North Carolina, February 12.	2019
“The Reemergence of Judaism in the Post-Franco Era (1975-2018).” Research Symposium, Department of Romance Studies. Duke University, Durham, North Carolina, March 8.	2018

RELEVANT WORK EXPERIENCE

Special Collections Research Center, William & Mary, Williamsburg, VA	2019 – Present
Instruction and Research Associate	2022 – Present
Instruction and Processing Specialist	2022
Graduate Apprentice	2019 – 2020
Virginia History Day State Judge	2022
Transcription and Translation Services, Memory and History: Transforming the Narrative of the Spanish Civil War	2020 – Present
Researcher and Team Lead, Argentina Declassification Project, Williamsburg, VA	2020
Research Analyst, Asociación para la Recuperación de la Memoria Histórica, Ponferrada, Spain	2018
Research Assistant, Echoes and Reflections at Yad Vashem, Jerusalem, Israel	2017

PUBLIC HISTORY AND DIGITAL HUMANITIES PUBLICATIONS

Co-curator and Installer, “ Strollin’: A History of Black Greek Letter Organizations at William & Mary ” exhibit.	2022 – Present
Curator, “ The Use and Abuse of Black Enfranchisement: Local and National Voting since the Civil War ” exhibit.	2020 – Present
Photo Archivist, “ Liberators and Survivors: The First Moments ,” Yad Vashem Educational Video.	2017

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Courses Taught

Post-1945 United States Memory and Human Rights, Instructor of Record	2022
The Historian’s Craft: World War II, Co-Instructor	2022
Global History Since 1500, Teaching Assistant	2020 – 2021

Guest Lectures

“Transitional Justice in Argentina: A Case Study in History and Memory,” for Latin American History since 1824, Dr. Richard Turits, William & Mary	2022
“La reemergencia del judaísmo después de Franco,” for Voces de la España Medieval, Dr. Lisa Merschel, Duke University	2018 – 2019

Additional Teaching Experience

Special Collections Research Center, Instructor Disciplines include History, Hispanic Studies, Physics, Art History, Anthropology	2022 – Present
The Road to the United States Civil War, National Institute of American History & Democracy (NIAHD), Instructor	2022

CERTIFICATIONS AND TRAININGS

Sawyer Seminar, Reimagining the American Landscape: Race and the Future of Public History, The Memory Project at the University of Virginia Generously funded by the Andrew M. Mellon Foundation	2022 – 2023
Rare Book School, The History of the Book in America: A Survey from Colonial to Modern, Charlottesville, Virginia	2022
Summer Institute on Genocide Studies and Prevention, Keene State College, New Hampshire

Generously funded by the Charles E. Scheidt Family Foundation	2022
America and World Fascism: From the Spanish Civil War to Nuremberg and Beyond, Graduate Seminar	2022
Echoes & Reflections Advanced Learning Seminar, Yad Vashem. Jerusalem, Israel	2017

SERVICE TO THE UNIVERSITY

William & Mary Library Board of Directors, Graduate Student Representative	2022 – Present
Teaching Fellows/Teaching Assistants Training, Panelist	2022
Modern America Reading Group, Chair	2021 – Present
History Graduate Student Association, Social Chair	2021 – 2022
History Graduate Student Association, Secretary	2020 – 2021

ADDITIONAL

Languages:	English: native fluency, Spanish: full professional proficiency
Skills:	Digital Humanities: proficiency in HTML/CSS, Scalar, Omeka, WordPress, Trint; Transcription and Translation from Spanish to English; independent research consulting;

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Memory Studies Association
Association for Spanish and Portuguese Historical Studies
Association for Computers and the Humanities